

EERT STORE

TERMS OF SERVICE

1. INTRODUCTION AND ACCEPTANCE OF TERMS

Welcome to EERT STORE, the premier platform specialized in providing digital services, including but not limited to engagement, views, and digital sales across various social media and electronic platforms such as TikTok, Kick, and any other current or future digital networks.

By accessing this website or utilizing any of its services, you fully, finally, and irrevocably acknowledge and agree to comply with and be bound by all the terms and conditions outlined herein, regardless of whether you have thoroughly read them.

If you do not agree to any provision of these terms, you must immediately cease browsing the website and refrain from ordering any service from EERT STORE.

A. METHOD OF ACCEPTING THE TERMS

Your acceptance of these terms and conditions becomes legally binding and enforceable upon executing any of the following actions:

- Browsing, accessing, or using the EERT STORE website in any manner.
- Creating, initiating, or submitting an order for any service within the store.
- Completing a payment transaction through any available means (such as Western Union or other approved payment processors).
- Confirming an order or transmitting the required service data to the store.

Upon performing any of the aforementioned actions, you acknowledge that you have read, understood, and consented to all terms and policies without any exception or reservation.

B. SCOPE OF SERVICES

These terms strictly apply to all current and future digital services offered by EERT STORE, including but not limited to:

- View delivery services across various digital and streaming platforms.
- Engagement fulfillment services (including likes, comments, shares, and followers).
- Live streaming support and entertainment platform optimization for services like TikTok and Kick.
- Any additional digital solutions or products implemented or introduced by the platform in the future.

2. ELIGIBLE AGE FOR PLATFORM UTILIZATION

- a) The utilization of EERT STORE services and access to the platform is strictly restricted to individuals who are 13 years of age or older.
- b) Any individual under the age of 13 is completely unauthorized to use the website, execute purchases, or request any services within the platform.
- c) This age threshold is actively enforced to ensure alignment with digital safety mandates, safeguard underage users, and maintain responsible engagement with our digital assets.
- d) EERT STORE reserves the complete and absolute right to suspend, terminate, or cancel any order or account found to violate this age restriction without any liability or obligation to provide compensation.

3. REFUND AND CANCELLATION POLICY (NON-REFUNDABLE)

- a) EERT STORE strictly prohibits any returns, refunds, or reversals of financial transactions once a purchase has been successfully completed for any digital service or product.
- b) All processed transactions and submitted orders are deemed final, irrevocable, and non-refundable immediately upon confirmation and commencement of fulfillment.
- c) The client explicitly acknowledges awareness that the provided solutions are immediate or near-immediate digital services; hence, they cannot be halted, recalled, or restored once execution begins.
- d) The management of EERT STORE retains the unilateral right to reject any refund request or payment dispute without incurring any financial or legal liability toward the client, and such decisions remain final and non-negotiable.

4. DATA PROTECTION AND CLIENT SECURITY

- a) EERT STORE diligently employs industry-compliant security frameworks to protect client information and shield database entries from unauthorized data access or malicious disclosure.
- b) However, the client acknowledges and accepts that the platform cannot guarantee absolute 100% security for data transmitted over the internet due to systemic digital vulnerabilities outside the direct control of the store.
- c) The client maintains sole and complete responsibility for securing personal accounts linked to our services, and is strongly urged to implement Two-Factor Authentication (2FA) across all connected nodes.
- d) If access or login is conducted via external integrations (such as Google/Gmail or other network sign-ins), the client is fully liable for guarding credential integrity, passwords, and verification codes.
- e) EERT STORE disclaims all responsibility and liability for security breaches or data loss deriving from user negligence or failure to implement adequate security protocols.

5. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY AND ENGAGEMENT CLAUSE

- a) The user recognizes and agrees that EERT STORE operates solely as a digital fulfillment vendor and holds no accountability regarding how the client manages the services or the results arising post-delivery.
- b) All services are deployed entirely at the customer's personal risk, and the client remains exclusively accountable for any misuse, non-compliant deployment, or illegal activities linked to our services.
- c) Under no circumstances shall the platform be held liable for direct, indirect, incidental, or consequential damages or losses resulting from relying upon the delivered digital products.
- d) The user affirms that any operational activity executed through our delivered assets is their personal choice, and the store maintains total immunity against subsequent outcomes or platform-side actions.
- e) By using this platform, you explicitly agree to indemnify and hold harmless EERT STORE, its operators, directors, and representatives from any legal actions or financial liability.

6. LEGAL DISCLAIMERS

- a) The user accepts that EERT STORE functions purely as a service provider and makes no implicit or explicit commercial warranties regarding the performance metrics or long-term visibility of the assets post-delivery.
- b) All products and services are rendered on an "as is" and "as available" basis without guarantees of any kind, and deployment remains at the consumer's discretion.
- c) The platform, management, and staff completely disclaim legal, financial, or punitive liabilities stemming from direct or indirect utilization of the delivered services.
- d) The user unconditionally agrees to release EERT STORE from any formal complaints, damages, or claims arising from service consumption or operational usage.
- e) The user is solely responsible for verifying that their consumption of these services aligns perfectly with local judicial laws and the operational terms of the third-party platforms to which the services are directed.

8. CONCLUSION AND FINAL PROVISIONS

- a) These terms and conditions have been explicitly formulated to govern user engagement with EERT STORE and establish transparent operational rights and parameters for all involved parties.
- b) The user acknowledges that continuing to access the store or ordering services implies unconditional and comprehensive consent to all clauses detailed above.
- c) The management of EERT STORE reserves the unrestricted right to modify, adjust, or completely replace these terms at any moment without prior notification, and updates become instantly binding upon publication.
- d) If a user disagrees with any update or modified clause, they must immediately cease utilizing the store's services and exit the platform.
- e) These terms and conditions serve as the exclusive, final, and definitive legal framework regulating all relationships and business dealings between the user and EERT STORE.
